Robinson Rancheria is a Federally recognized Indian tribe organized under the provisions of the Indian Re-Organization Act.

Definitions: For purposes of this regulation, "Indian" means any person of Indian descent who is entitled to receive services as an Indian from the United States Department of the Interior. "Reservation" includes reservation land, "Rancherias," or any other land held by the United States in trust for any tribe or individual Indian.

Robinson Rancheria is a sovereign Nation according to Title 11-Tax Status of Indian Tribal Governments, under Public Law 97-473 Tax and Erisa Provisions and may exercise its government function of the Tax Exempt Status from California Sales Tax.

"B" Sales by Non-Indians (meaning sales by non-Indians to Indians who reside on a reservation or Rancheria): Sales tax does not apply to sales of tangible personal property made to Indians by retailers when the sales are negotiated at places of business located on Indian Reservations or Rancherias if the property is delivered to the purchaser on a reservation/Rancheria.
